The following extract from the Report on the work of the Indian Section of the British Consulate at Bagdad for the year 1937 is published for general information :—

XIII.—VISAS FOR IRAQ.

(a) Pilgrim Passes.

Pilgrim Passes are granted all over India, but the necessary visa for Iraq, for one year for any number of journeys into Iraq, is granted by the Iraqi Consul at Bombay or by the Sind Government at Karachi acting on behalf of the Iraqi Government. The establishment of an Iraqi Consulate at Karachi is under consideration.

There have been many cases of pilgrims who left India for Iraq without obtaining an Iraqi visa at the time of their embarkation. At Basra, the Iraqi Police Authorities gave such persons an emergency visa, valid only for a single journey to Iraq, charging the usual visa fee. These pilgrims were thus deprived of the privilege extended to those who had obtained their visa before embarkation in India.

It is therefore desirable to draw the attention of intending pilgrims in India to this matter by giving it the widest publicity in the vernacular press.

By Order,
P. H. KRISHNA RAO,
Secretary to Government,
Local Self-Government Department.
